

Welcome to Grittleton Adventures

Welcome to our Grittleton House Centre

Grittleton House is situated in the beautiful Wiltshire village of Grittleton on the edge of the Cotswolds, and with its 30-acre grounds provide the perfect countryside location for a school activity adventure centre whilst being within reach of the M4 corridor providing easy travel links to and from site.

Grittleton Adventures are a family run company with over 70 years' experience providing residential trips for schools. We have 2 centres, Grittleton House in Wiltshire and Gaveston Hall in West Sussex both providing a full and varied range of instructor led activities. We also work closely with our sister site, Braeside Education Centre, also run by the same family.

We are proud to provide pupils and teachers with unforgettable experiences and fantastic memories through our commitment to quality and our dedicated and professional staff team. We place a key emphasis on quality activity instruction to deliver the highest level of fun and enjoyment for each child.

Unlocking Potential

At Grittleton Adventures our highly trained staff work tirelessly to ensure all children staying with us have a fantastic experience and leave us having:

- Accomplished a sense of personal achievement
- Built new friendships
- Enhanced their personal and social development
- Increased self confidence
- Learnt new skills and experiences
- Made memories to last a lifetime
- A superior safety awareness
- Worked as a team
- but most importantly HAD FUN!!

Our staff have a refreshing, fun and professional attitude to their roles and to both the children and teachers they work with.

Safety and Security

The safety of children on site is of paramount importance. We ensure that:

- All accommodation buildings are locked at night with external access via key or keycode lock only
